"Having regard to the fact that the Workhouses originally have been built by the Government, that ever since these structures have been repaired, maintained and extended from time to time by Boards of Guardians directly out of the rates of respective Unions in Ireland, that while money is advanced by the Government to erect and extend Lunatic Asylums and other public buildings, advances on loans for rebuilding, repairing, or extending Workhouses have been refused:

"Resolved,—That our representatives in Parliament for the County, as well as all other members representing Irish constituencies, be solicited with a view to influence the Government to make such changes in the law as will place Boards of Guardians on the same footing as the most favoured public boards in Ireland as regards borrowing powers."

Adopted unanimously.

21st Dec. '95. From the Clerk of Union Ballymahon also forwarding copies of resolutions of his Board as follows:—

"RESOLVED—That at this specially summoned Board we wish to bring under the notice of the Government that we consider the interest we pay on the different loans is excessive, and as these Loans are specially for the benefit of the poor, the Government should give them at the lowest possible interest. We pay under the Labourers' Acts 3½ per cent., and under the Dispensary Houses' Act, 3½ per cent. We ask the Government to advance the money at 2½ per cent. as all forms of taxation are now placed on the land—a burden it is badly able to bear, especially as agricultural produce of every description is at very low rates, and not likely to improve."

"RESOLVED—That we call on the Government to introduce legislation simplifying the working of the Labourers' Acts, and that the very expensive preliminaries connected with them be dispensed with in all cases when owner and occupier consent to the taking of the plots for the purposes of the Labourers' Acts."

Adopted unanimously.
