Ordered.

The tender of Messrs. J. H. Pearson & Co. for the supply of 50 Bedsteads with best galvanized treble wire Mattresses and Fibre Mattresses in three parts, complete, at one pound fifteen shillings each was accepted.

Mr. Colahan, Workhouse Medical Officer, came before the Board to explain why the Medical Officers had not complied with the directions given ^{them} to report weekly meeting on the quality of the provisions supplied to the Workhouse. That recently they thought it necessary to reject some quarters of Beef that had been supplied because they considered it wasteful and that it could not be used with advantage. Subsequently the Workhouse Visiting Committee or some few members of the Committee examined the Beef and passed it and it was taken into stock. Under these circumstances the Medical Officers considered it would be invidious for them to report on the quality of the provisions supplied, as their report and the report of the Visiting Committee might again clash; consequently they must decline to report.

Order. The Meat Contractor to be requested to supply heavier quarters of Beef than those supplied recently and of which the Medical Officers made complaint.
