At suit of the Committee of the person and estate of Patrick James Blake a lunatic, against Martin, Pat and Anthony Ridge from part of the lands of Derrykyle.

Order Clothing to amount of 10/- to be provided for Mary Kelly to enable her leave the Workhouse and seek employment.

Mr M. A. Lynch drew attention to the hours at which Dr Colahan, Medical Officer of the Workhouse attended the patients in hospital, and owing to the late hours at which he attended, stimulants and medicines could not be given out; and that it was not fair that the patients in the hospital should be neglected in this way. Being at one time a Union official himself, he was aware that according to Workhouse Rules, the Medical Officer was bound to attend daily not later than 12 o'clock, noon.

Order That Dr Colahan be called upon to comply with the Workhouse Rules in this respect. Subsequently Dr Colahan came before the Board and stated that he was aware of the Rule but that if he came in at a later hour he found he could give more time in the hospital than by coming in before 12 o'clock; that if the Guardians wanted to rigidly enforce the Rule he was bound to obey them, but if he were allowed to come in after the hour he would be able to devote more time to the patients in the hospital.

The Guardians expressed themselves satisfied with this explanation.
