PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS acting as the BURIAL BOARD.

17th Aug. 96 From the Superintendent, Galway Cemetery, in answer to the Clerk's letter calling upon him for an explanation of the charge preferred against him by the Rev. P. Dooley P.P., and stating that it is a misunderstanding of his Reverence the facts were - when the hearse arrived at the Avenue nearest the grave and before the coffin was taken out that he raised his hat to his reverence and said "I would respectfully suggest, Father, that you would allow me to get the coffin lowered before the service is read as there is danger of the neighbouring clay falling in. Some clay had previously fallen in and he had to get it removed; that he has to go about during the service to quietly point out where people may accidentally stand on flowers, &c; that he considers he behaved properly as in duty bound and tried to inculcate order; that if he in any way unwittingly had offended Father Dooley he begged leave to apologise.
