

Garrick must be one of long experience in fever nursing & Hospital management, taking over the management of the new Fever Hospital in the near future, which in itself will be a most responsible position. She will also have the training of probationers. It will, therefore, be necessary to specify in the advertisement that only nurses possessing these qualifications will be accepted.

(Signed) Michael McDonogh, M. B.
N. J. W. Colahan, M. D.

The Guardians heartily approve of the tribute paid to the memory of Nurse Garrick.
Order. The issue of advertisement (on the lines specified by the Medical Officers) for a charge nurse in the Fever Hospital, salary & rations as before. Applications to be considered by the Medical Officers on the 11th prox, & submitted to the Guardians at Meeting on the following day.

Moved by Mr. P. Lydon, seconded by Mr. M. McNeill, & Resolved. That no claim be made against the Pension of Army Pensioner P. Kett, for the maintenance of self & family in the Workhouse, during the time he has been discharging the duties of Workhouse Van driver.

Medical Charities Act (14 & 15 Vic. cap. 88) & the Act, and Fever Hospital Committee.

The Committee, acting on the advice of the Engineer, recommended that maple timber be used in the flooring of the wards in the new Fever Hospital, but not in the Administration Block. The extra cost will be between £30 & £35, but the flooring will be far superior to the ordinary kind, being hard durable, & microbe resisting.

The adoption of the report of the Committee was moved by Mr. H. Egan, seconded by Mr. Grealish, & carried, Messrs. Phawless & O'Brien dissenting on the grounds of the extra cost to be incurred.
