The Reports of the Master and other Officers were read, and orders made thereon as follows:—

Margaret Costello was sentenced to 14 days imprisonment at Petty Sessions on the 9th inst. for insubordination in the Workhouse. The charges against Mary Kelly were adjourned as she is in prison, & the charge against McCarroll was dismissed.

Eleven men & four women have availed of the Old Age Pensions & left the Workhouse on the 6th inst.

John Coen, Workhouse Wardsman, resumed duty after illness on the 5th inst.

As ordered by the Board at last meeting I wrote to Messrs O'Flaherty & Butler to attend to look over the stocktaking returns furnished by them & to report thereon. Mr O'Flaherty wrote to say he could not attend, so there was no action taken.

I distributed the £1-7-6. received from the Insurance Co amongst the officers whose clothes were burned.

The Schoolmistress repositioned Books, &c. to the value of ^{s. d.} 15 7.

Ordered.

The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland, and others, were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively. to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively, as follows):—

1892/10, } Enclosing forms for returns showing with respect
6th Inst. } to the inmates of the Workhouse on the 31st inst. the names of each person of unsound mind, & the number of persons not of unsound mind who were afflicted with epilepsy.

Furnished by return of post.

18902/10, } Referring to the Minutes of the 21st inst. from which
9th Inst. } it appears that the return of stock in the Workhouse now furnished by Mr John O'Flaherty differs from the Master's books, & from the return furnished by Mr J.W. Butler in October last, deducting goods since received into stock; pointing out that the Guardians should make careful inquiry into this important matter, Consideration deferred.
