The Acting Clerk Submitted Committee's report, re position of Guardians Employees under National Health Insurance Act.

In connection with this matter, a letter was read from the Insurance Comms, dated 12th August, 1912, pointing out that a question has been raised by the Guardians of South Dublin Union, whether employment in the Service of a Board of Guardians is employment within the meaning of the Act. The question will have to be Submitted for decision to the High Court, and as probably a considerable time may elapse before a decision has been arrived at, suggesting to the Guardians that, pending ^{such} a decision contributions should be paid in the ordinary way. If subsequently decided that there is no employment within the meaning of the Act, the Comms. will be prepared to arrange for a refund. Adding, that with a view to saving delay, the Comms. are prepared to continue their consideration of the Schemes of exemption which have already been submitted.

Order. Action in this matter adjourned, pending the decision of the High Court.
