

for the striking of Rates for coming financial year. The Guardians have made an estimate sufficient to meet their demands for coming financial year, and included therein, the usual amounts set aside for repayment of Loans.

1209/21
9th February. From Same, sanctioning the temporary employment of nurse Leonard, at a remuneration of £2-2-0 per week, with 19th weekly in lieu of rations, as substitute for nurse Quinn in the Workhouse Hospital.

1219/21
12th February. From Same, re Scheme for Amalgamation of Unions in the County, and inquiring whether the Guardians kept the question of Amalgamation in view when preparing their Estimate for coming year. A Committee representative of the various Public Bodies in the County, are dealing with the matter. As no definite Scheme has yet been decided on, it would be impossible to anticipate how this Union will be affected, consequently Estimate was prepared on same basis as hitherto.

1212/21
15th February. From Same, expressing sanction to the following:-
1. Payment of £3 per week and rations to Mrs Thomas Simms for his services as temporary Master of the Workhouse.
2. Payment of £2-2-0 per week, and £1 per week in lieu of rations, to Mrs Margaret Walsh for her services as temporary Maternity nurse in the Workhouse.
3. Proposed increase in price of Bread. Resolved showing that the price of flour is increased should be prepared for submission to the Auditor.
4. The purchase of a new Overcoat for Ambulance driver.

5. Payment of £9-5-0 to Miss Maria Jullinan for 3 months services as temporary Relieving Officer in the Durloughmore District.

Requesting to be informed how long Relieving Officer Cooney has been on sick leave, and whether she has been paid salary during her absence.

R. O. Cooney has been probably over 12 months off duty, and paid full salary. Miss Jullinan is her sister, and has only been paid for 4 months duty (3 on sick leave and 1 month annual holiday)

3rd January. From County Committee of Agriculture, offering to deliver Seed Potatoes of the "Aran Chief" variety, carriage paid to Drammore, Atheny or Galway at £11 per ton.
Moycullee, Doughtred or Maam Cross " £4-10-0 "
Orders must be accompanied by Cash.

3rd Feb^y. From Galway County Council Secretary, pointing out that on 3 occasions during past 2 months, the Meeting of that Body fell through for want of a quorum, and unless the Quarterly Meeting is held on the 16th instant, the rates for coming year cannot be made, which will cause an entire break down of the Local Government in the County.

The Guardians are pleased to learn that a County Council Meeting is sitting today.

7th Feb^y. From Same, giving notice that the County Council Accounts will be submitted for audit to the L.G. Auditor on 17th instant.

The Guardians understand this audit will be in respect of 2 years ended 31st March last. The Guardians Accounts for that period were audited last August.

The Secretary of the County Council furnished his General Estimate of Rates for Year ending 31st March, 1922

21st January. Notice from the Postmaster General, determining Agreement for hire of Telephone Service between the Post's Lodge and Dunes Hospital, as from 20th May next.

3rd Feb. From Coal Supplies Committee, pointing out that Owing to De-control of Coal in Ireland, it will not be necessary to furnish the usual weekly returns in future.

4th Feb. From Catholic Institution for Deaf and Dumb, Cabra, Dublin, notifying that the deaf mute Anne Mulkearns was discharged from that Institution on 31st January.

16th Feb. From the Rev. Mother, Convent of Mercy, thanking the Guardians for their resolution of sympathy on the death of Sister M. Anthony.

16th Feb. From Kate Heady, resigning her position as Wardsmaid in Nos. Male Hospital Ward.

Accepted. Consideration of the appointment of a successor adjourned for a fortnight.

16th Feb. From Mr. R. J. Mullery, Clerk of the Union, submitting a Medical Certificate, that he will be unfit to resume duty for another 3 months. The Guardians have been so kind as to have already granted him 6 months sick leave, but as he spent 5 months of this in bed, he is yet unable to walk without support, but is gradually improving. If granted 3 months extension of sick leave now, it does not follow he will avail himself of the full period, but will resume duty at the earliest moment he feels fit to work. He has had very little sick leave during his service of 40 years.

Granted 3 months extension of sick leave, Mr. Gallagher to continue as substitute at existing remuneration. Mr. Mullery was granted a months vacation as from 7th August last, and subsequently 6 months sick leave which will not expire until 7th proximo.

The Guardians carefully revised the Relief List for Galway District, and it was found that 16 cases had been struck off during past fortnight, which proved that persons had been in receipt of Relief, who were not actually in need of it. The Relieving officer was severely cautioned that such must not occur in future.

Order

Issue of advertisement inviting tenders for 2 yearly supplies as from 1st April next, to be considered at a Special Meeting on 9th proximo.

The supply of 12 tubes Vaccinia Staphylococci, and 2 water cushions, for use in Workhouse Hospital.
