27th 11/21 From the Local Government Department of Dublin

20th March. Bureau, sanctioning payment of a fee of £1-1-0 to Messrs. G. J. & Hugh & Co. for acting as sea-tester

In regard to the proposal to continue extra allowance for rations to nurses, requesting to be informed of the total weekly amount now allowed to each nurse with reference to the question of taking stock in the workhouse, pointing out that it would be most undesirable to employ an official from the Master's Office as Stocktaker, as this is one of the Offices effected by the Stocktaker's Scrutiny. The Guardians should endeavour to secure an outsider as is being done in other Unions. An advertisement published locally, might secure applications.

(Note. This communication although dated 24th ultimo, only reached here by mid-day post today.)

The present weekly cash allowance to nurses in lieu of rations is 2^s 6^d each.

Mr. Simms has now practically completed Stocktaking, and, under the exceptional circumstances, the Guardians request sanction to his appointment on this occasion.

1st April. From the Workhouse Medical Officer, stating that before any action towards isolation of consumptive patients in the Institution is taken, they would be pleased to have the matter further considered by the Guardians.

Order. Summon meeting of Visiting Committee to meet the Medical Officer at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, 20th inst.

2nd April. From Aberdeen Insurance Co., stating that they note the Guardians have decided not to avail themselves of the Company's offer of an annual discount of 15% off Fire Premiums in exchange for a 5 year's Agreement. They are however, pleased to understand that the business will be continued with them through Messrs. McDonagh & Boland, Insurance Brokers.

2nd April. From Messrs. McDonagh & Boland, Insurance Brokers, stating that they are communicating with local Agent for Aberdeen Co. to the effect that the fact of their getting the business will in no way interfere with his interests.

13th April. From Mr. John Hanly, Workhouse Porter, tendering his resignation owing to ill health, and submitting a Medical Certificate from Dr. Colahan to the effect that the muscular weakness present, and swollen condition of his legs, renders it impossible for him to return to duty again.

Resignation accepted, Mr. Thomas Quinn to act as temporary Porter for the present at a remuneration of £1-10-0 per week and rations.

Notice of Motion

by Mr. J. Griffin - That at meeting on 25th May, he & some Guardian on his behalf will move that Mr. Hanly be granted a Superannuation allowance.

13th April. From Mr. R. J. Drullery, Clerk of Union, who has been absent from duty owing to illness, stating that he hopes to be able to resume on Monday, the 18th instant.

Wardman John Connolly applied for and was granted 2 weeks leave of absence, the Master to arrange for the discharge of the duties by a suitable inmate.

Notice of Eviction

at Suit of James Mullins against Patrick Mullerins from a house at Prospect Hill, Galway.

The Acting Clerk reported that Mr. Park-Beresford, L. G. Inspector visited the Board Room on 12th instant, but on being informed that the Guardians still adhered to their decision not to recognise the Authority of the L. G. Board or their officers, he did not demand to see the Union Books nor seek any information as regards the Union business.

In response to advertisement, 3 tenders were received for the supply of Irish Bacon for period to 30th September next, viz:-

John Ryan @ $2\frac{1}{2}$ ^d 1/2 lb. ✓
 Mr. Costelloe " $2\frac{3}{4}$ "
 B. V. Heaney " $2\frac{1}{4}$ "

Mr. Ryan's tender was accepted.

Proposed by Mr. Griffin, Seconded by Mr. Young and Resolved - That we beg to convey to the Priests and people of Dublin, our sympathy with them in the loss they have sustained by the death of Dr. Walsh, their great Arch-Bishop, who was an ornament of the Catholic Church, and a great Irishman.

Proposed by Mr. Griffin, Seconded by Mr. Young, and Resolved - That we earnestly request the County Council to take immediate steps for the collection of all outstanding Rates in Aran Islands, otherwise the Guardians will withdraw all Public Services paid for under the Poor Law and Medical Charities Acts.

The Guardians are of opinion that the Islanders are as well able to pay their Rates, as persons residing on the mainland in Connemara District generally
