3rd Mar. '90 From Mr. W. S. Halliday enclosing £25 as a further instalment of amount for which he is liable as surety for Whamberg, and promising a further payment early in May.

5th Mar. '90 Train the Solicitor to the Board, stating that in the case "Guardians v Halliday," costs amounting to about £40 have been already incurred, both in this action and the one brought against Lambert, and that distinct provision should be made for the payment of these costs before any arrangement be entered into with Mr Halliday. That he has submitted necessary papers to Counsel to enable him continue proceedings directed by the Board at meeting on 19th inst.

BURIAL BOARD PROCEEDINGS.

Correspondence.

4th Mar. '90. From Sergt. A. Frederick, claiming the sum of 18/- as compensation for a glass shade of an immortelle over the grave of his child in Galway Cemetery, broken by a grave digger when filling in an adjoining grave on the 3rd instant.

Order. To be paid the amount of his claim, which is to be stopped from the fees to the grave digger by easy instalments.

4th Mar. '90 From Mr. J. Joyce of Merue, drawing attention to the fact that the small Burial Ground known as St. James's in the townland of Kallybaanbeg, closed by Order of the Local Government Board dated the 14th February, 1882, excepting the persons named in the schedule to the Order, is still used by total strangers, that it is very much overcrowded, and the disturbance of remains which the constant use of the ground necessitates, will render the surroundings unhealthy.

Order. Printed notices cautioning all persons save those named in the schedule to the sealed Order of the Local Government Board, against using this Burial Ground, to be posted over the District in which it is situate.

Also that it be notified that an order for free interment in the section of the Galway Cemetery devoted to pauper interments, may be had on application by the friends of a deceased poor person to the Relieving Officer for Galway District.

The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively as follows):—

10th Mar. '90. From the Superior, St. Joseph's Blind Asylum, Drumcondra, informing the Guardians that the boy John J. Dooly who has been in the Institution since Sept. 1881, is a tolerably good basket-maker and would be able to earn a fair livelihood by his trade but for the dearth of employment which prevails in it at present. Requesting the Guardians to continue paying for the boy's maintenance in the Institution till about August next.

Order. To be informed that the Guardians accede to his request, but will positively decline to maintain the boy in the Institution after August next.

16th Mar. '90 From the Medical Superintendent of the District

District Lunatic Asylum, Ballinascloe, stating in reply to inquiries made by the Clerk—

1. That Mary Ryan committed on the 27th ultimo was charged to the Town of Galway there being nothing in the Warrant to show that she had any connection with the County.
2. Patients are usually charged according to the Districts from which they are committed, unless some special direction to the contrary - the Magistrates, Dispensary Doctor, and Clerk of Petty Sessions being supposed to act within their jurisdiction.
3. The average cost for maintenance of a patient in the Asylum is a fraction under £19 per annum, of this the Government pays 4/- per week for pauper lunatics.

The following tender of William Holoney was accepted, viz:

For old lead	2/3	per cent.
" " iron	2/3	" "
" " cast iron	1/3	" "
" " clothes	3/9	" "

The Solicitor, in compliance with the request of the Board at meeting on the 19th ultimo, submitted his Bill of Costs against the Board up to date, when it was Resolved - that the consideration of the Bill of Costs be deferred to Board meeting on the 26th instant, and that notice to that effect be sent to each member of the Board.
