Stating that he is to say in the first place the addition of 51 shilling spaces would scarcely in any degree meet the claim the Vestry make; and secondly that they must not be taken as assenting to the alienation, if such be contemplated, of any portion of the ground allotted to free interments from the purpose for which it was granted and for

for which they do not consider it excessive.

The following members of the Board were appointed a Committee to furnish a report on the work necessary to be carried out before opening Rahoon new Cemetery for public interments, viz: Messrs J. J. Kirwan, P. Kearns, J. J. Laine, and M. O'Sullivan (Emig.)

"That we consider the Rules of the National Board, which impose restrictions upon the freedom of Religious Instruction in Schools frequented by children of one denomination only, in localities where there is abundant School accommodation for Roman Catholics and Protestants, under management acceptable to each denomination, as unnecessary and vexatious, and we hereby call upon the Government to adopt the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Primary Education (Ireland), 1870, vol. 1, p. 371, which urge the Government to remove them."

2. "That as the Christian Brothers have rendered immense services to the country by educating the great bulk of the children of the working classes in many cities and towns in Ireland, we regard their exclusion from a share in the moneys voted by Parliament for the Education of the poor in Ireland, as an injustice not only to them but to the parents of those children; and we call upon the Government to redress this grievance as soon as possible."

3. "That copies of those Resolutions be sent to the Prime Minister, the Chief Secretary, Mr. Gladstone, and to our City and County Members, ~~and to the several Boards of Guardians in Ireland~~; and that the attention of our Representatives in Parliament be called to these grievances with a view to their speedy removal."
