Gentlemen,

The inmate referred to in your communication of the 29th ultimo (John McLean) is paralyzed. When working in a ship's hold some months ago a portion of a cargo of salt fell on him causing a fracture of the spine. His case is quite hopeless and a chair in which he can propel himself will be a great boon to him. I think one might be procured at a moderate price.

N. J. W. Colahan.
