The Reports of the Master and other Officers were read, and Orders made thereon as follows:—

D. Colahan desires me report to you again the insufficiency of the supply of water to the Female Hospital. There is no supply for flushing the closets except what is carried in by hand, consequently the sewer got out of order last week. I think it would be well to get the force pump which the Engineer recommended.
Order. The Master to write to the Town Commissioners on the subject of the insufficient water supply.
