(Signed)

Clerk of the Union

Read a Letter from Doctor Little of Meadford in reply to a copy of a Minute made last board day offering him 15/- per Annum in remuneration for his services as Medical Attendant for the Meadford Cholera District and still demanding one guinea per Annum

Orderd That Doctor Little be informed that the Vice Guardians are still of opinion that the remuneration offered viz 15/- per Annum is sufficient in as much as Doctor French whose dist^{ric} is equally large and who attended a greater number of cases than Doctor Little is satisfied with it, and the Vice Guardians are prepared to issue a cheque for the amount due Doctor Little at that rate.

The Specification for the repairs of the front buildings of the Work House destroyed by fire, having been received from Mr. McMullen Assistant Architect to Mr. Mil-kinson

Resolved That Andrew Equus proposal to erect same for the sum of £254, 5, 6 be accepted and that he be directed to proceed with the repairs forthwith

The Clerk having reported that Francis Kelly had refused to take the situation of Superintendent at the Work House

Resolved That Hubert Delap be appointed Superintendent of the pauper Indoor Labourers at a Salary of 10/- per week, duties to commence on Monday the 25th inst and that John Savage be appointed to superintend the Out Door labourers in the Tuam District in the room of H. Delap at a Salary of 4/- a week.

Resolved that Pat Finn be appointed Superintendent in the North part of the Tuam District in the room of John Savage removed to the Glomacree line.

The Clerk also reported that only two of the Relieving Officers had made up their Relief Lists for the last half year ended 25 March.

Ordered that the Clerk write to each of the Relieving Officers with the exception of Mr P. Cannon & Mr C. P. ... that unless they have their Relief Lists made up by Wednesday next, they would be proceeded against under the 100 Section of the Irish Poor Relief Act.

The Clerk having reported that Valentine ... Relieving Officer for Abbey had his account this week in a more satisfactory state & the Vice Guardians having reconsidered his case

Resolved that the order calling on V. Browne to resign be rescinded and that he be allowed to remain one month on trial.

Capt Parley P.L.I. and Mrs Reardon by Vice Guardian having revised the Relief Lists of Monina L.P. On Monday the 18th inst, found that the Relieving Officer P. Tully had continued relief to some children of pauper recipients of Out Door Relief who were dead, and considering that if he had made due enquiry such an error could not have happened.

Resolved that P. Tully be charged with the relief afforded to those children as now checked in his Relief List.
