The attention of the Guardians having been called by the Chairman to the Financial position of the Union by the Board it appears that on this day they had only a sum of £300 in the Treasurer's hands and which sum must be disbursed on Monday next to Contractors and in as much as the Collectors have informed the Chairman that they have no money to lodge. On Saturday & next, from which circumstance they will be unable to discharge the current expenses unless the Commissioners come forward in support. It was therefore Resolved that the above be urged on the Commissioners notice and their particular attention called thereto, as the Contractors have signified their intention of withdrawing the supplies unless the claims are liquidated forthwith. — Mr. Pad. Kelly has just pressed his claim for £500 for meal alone for the last five weeks

[Proposed by Thomas Kiffin
