1. The first of the main items of business was the report of the Committee on the proposed new scheme for the Galway Harbour.

The Committee had been asked to consider the various proposals which had been put forward by the Harbour Commissioners.

It was found that the proposals were of a very varied nature and that it was difficult to compare them.

The Committee had therefore considered the proposals in detail and had reached the following conclusions.

1. That the proposed scheme for the extension of the Harbour is a very desirable one.

2. That the proposed scheme for the improvement of the Harbour is a very desirable one.

3. That the proposed scheme for the improvement of the Harbour is a very desirable one.

The Committee had therefore recommended that the proposed scheme for the extension of the Harbour should be carried out as soon as possible.

Galway County Council Archives

The first part of the document deals with the history of the County Council and its various committees. It mentions the establishment of the Council in 1898 and the subsequent changes in its structure and powers. The text is dense and covers a wide range of topics, including the Council's role in local government, its financial responsibilities, and its relationship with the central government.

The second part of the document discusses the Council's policies and actions in various areas, such as education, health, and social services. It details the Council's efforts to improve the quality of life for its residents and its commitment to providing essential services. The text also mentions the Council's involvement in major infrastructure projects and its role in promoting economic development in the county.

The third part of the document provides a detailed account of the Council's financial performance over a period of several years. It includes a table showing the Council's income and expenditure, as well as a breakdown of the various sources of revenue. The text also discusses the Council's budgetary process and its efforts to maintain a balanced budget while investing in the county's future.

The final part of the document concludes with a summary of the Council's achievements and a look ahead to the future. It expresses the Council's confidence in its ability to continue to serve the people of Galway County and to address the challenges of the 21st century.

2030	42,000,000	42,500,000	(500,000)

The following table shows the Council's income and expenditure for the years 1998 to 2030. The Council has maintained a consistent policy of balancing its budget, with a small deficit of 500,000 in each year. This has allowed the Council to invest in the county's infrastructure and social services, while maintaining a high level of financial stability.

The Council's income has grown steadily over the period, reflecting the county's economic development and the Council's efforts to increase its revenue. The Council's expenditure has also increased, as it has taken on a wider range of responsibilities and invested in new services. Despite these challenges, the Council has managed to maintain a balanced budget throughout the period.

The Council's financial performance has been a key factor in its success in providing high-quality services to its residents. The Council's commitment to transparency and accountability has ensured that its financial decisions are made in the best interests of the county. The Council's financial stability has also allowed it to respond effectively to the challenges of the 21st century.

The Council's financial performance is a testament to its leadership and the hard work of its staff. The Council's commitment to excellence and its dedication to the people of Galway County have ensured its success over the past 25 years. The Council's financial stability is a key factor in its ability to continue to serve the people of Galway County and to address the challenges of the future.

Municipal Council of the County of Galway
Minutes of the Council held on the 14th day of June 1890

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE COUNTY OF GALWAY
Minutes of the Council held on the 14th day of June 1890

The Council met at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Town Hall, Galway, on the 14th day of June 1890, for the purpose of transacting business.

The Council then proceeded to transact business, and the following resolutions were passed:—
Resolved, That the Council do hereby approve of the report of the Municipal Engineer, dated the 10th day of June 1890, in relation to the proposed extension of the sewerage system in the town of Galway, and do hereby authorize the Municipal Engineer to proceed with the same.

Attest: This 14th day of June 1890.

The first of these is the fact that the population of the county is increasing at a rapid rate.

The second is the fact that the land is being used for agricultural purposes to a large extent.
